Advice to Mothers
Have you had baby's photograph taken?
It's an art to take baby's photograph as it should be taken. To catch his regular little smile, his pretty little dimples. Such photographs become prized remembrances of babyhood's days in years to come. We have had years of experience in photographing children. They always look their best when we take them. No troublesome posing. Snap them in a jiffy.

Papers in an appeal from the action of the probate court of Groton have been received with check, Parsons of the superior court by Patrick H. Githolby of Elizabeth, N. J., administrator of the late Gardner Hasland Butler of Elizabeth.

It is an appeal from the probate of the will of Louise Gardner Butler, who was his only child and sole heir. The appeal represents that under the trust provisions made under Mrs. Butler's will Henry Gardner of Waterford is trustee and the plaintiff in this action never received notice to be present in the Groton probate court on Nov. 19, 1911, when the account of Henry Gardner as trustee under the will of Louise Gardner Butler was accepted and an order entered for the distribution of the whole of the trust property between Mr. Gardner and Lydia G. Bergen of Elizabeth, N. J.

The appeal comes before the September term of the superior court.

PUTS BACKBONE INTO WAR POLICY

Government Adopts New Plan of Campaign Fifty Years Ago

—War To Be Made in Earnest Upon the Rebels—New London County Votes to Raise Full Regiment—Big Mass Meeting in Franklin Square—Governor Buckingham Orders 18th Connecticut to Camp at Norwich.

Most noticeable in the war news of fifty years ago this week was the note of satisfaction expressed by the press that the government was now to adopt a policy that actually meant war. Quoted from an editorial in the Bulletin, entitled "The War," are the following words: "When the war broke out it was a matter of doubt with a great many people whether the government would actually mean to burn an ounce of powder in defence of the old flag. All this has changed. The government have caught sight of the idea of the people and have at last decided to stand up and fight with the idea of hurting somebody. We are certain the war will be looked up on as really war and that there will be no soft hands laid upon the rebels in future."

At home in Norwich, the most important event of the week was an immense mass meeting that filled Franklin square and an equally great meeting in the evening in Broad hall where the resolution to raise a full regiment, the Eighteenth Connecticut, was ordered to be read in Norwich.

New London Schooner Captured.
The following are extracts from the files of the Bulletin in 1862:
July 21, 1862—The Chronicle says the schooner C. C. Comstock of New London was seized at Hampton Roads on Monday for having on board a cargo of contraband goods. She was sent to Baltimore in charge of a prize crew.

There is no earthly reason why the county of New London should not be represented in the field by one entire regiment in addition to the single companies which represent the other regiments now in service. We have the men; the only thing lacking is earnestness and effort.

New Freight Boat's First Trip.
The new freight boat, City of Norwich, arrived at the railroad dock on Sunday morning on her first trip. She is the first of the new line of light draught freight steamers to run between this city and New York. Until her consort is completed she will continue to run regular, making three trips a week.

A special dispatch from a Memphis paper, dated the 16th, reports that the rebel gun and iron-clad gunboat Arkansas successfully ran past that portion of our fleet along Vicksburg and the river is now anchored under the batteries of Vicksburg. The report says the ram ran down several federal war vessels and one was blown up.

July 22, 1862—The citizens of Norfolk at a town meeting on Saturday voted a $40 bounty for enlistments.
Putnam Savings Bank Organized.
The Putnam Savings Bank was organized on Saturday last by the choice of Edmund Wilkinson as president, George B. Mathewson as vice president and Gilbert W. Phillips treasurer.

The Bulletin today publishes the call for a mass meeting of the citizens in Franklin square on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock to devise measures at once of enlisting 1000 from the county of New London for the war.

July 23, 1862—H. T. Phillips has commenced recruiting in Montville. The town has voted a bounty of $100 to the first party of men who enlist. The number of enlistments in this town falls a little short of 300.

Greenville Engine Company's Patriotic.
The Greenville Engine company has voted $100 to be distributed among the men who enlist in the company being recruited by Messrs. Davis and Lindsay.
It is now officially announced that Department Supplying a Section Previously Without Lighting Facilities for Dwellings.

The Norwich gas and electrical department has just started work in Mechanic street at the West Main street end in putting in a 2 1/2 inch main that shall run as far as the silk mill, where it will join the main already in the street up to that point, coming from the Spring street end.

The new main will branch from the 4-inch main in West Main street and will supply gas to a section of Mechanic street which has not had gas before. It will also make more satisfactory the supply of gas for the silk mill.

PLANNING CONNECTICUT FAIR ON BIG SCALE.
Attractions Out of the Ordinary—Farmers' Day a Feature This Year.
Manager Fairs—of the Connecticut fair is rapidly rounding into form plans for the annual fair of time and place, beginning Sept. 2 (Labor day) and continuing through the week. Of course, the opening day, being a legal holiday and the day on which Labor day is celebrated, will be the principal day. Although no positive announcement has as yet been made, the management confidently expects to be able to present Col. Theodore Roosevelt as the leading attraction of that day.

Invitations have gone to President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Wilson. The acceptance of all is yet held in abeyance, but from the present outlook it is expected that both Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Wilson will accept. Governor Wilson, it is expected, will come Thursday (Governor's day), when Governor Baldwin and others of equal prominence will be on the grounds.

A Farmers' Day.
In addition the management has decided on a Farmers' day and has selected Wednesday as that day. It was not possible to arrange for a Grange day this year, and the Farmers' day has been planned instead. For this day an invitation was sent to Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson, but that gentleman was unable to accept. Assurance has been sent that one of the ablest men in the department of agriculture will be here in view of the recent correspondence in which have engaged Col. Charles M. Jarvis and Secretary Wilson. It is felt that the Farmers' day will be productive of some practical ideas as to making Connecticut a better state from an agricultural standpoint both in the quantity and the quality of its farm products.

A Children's Day.
Another of the features which the management expects to make of special interest in the Children's day (Tuesday). It is expected that the children who participated in the school tour at Groton and Hope park early in the summer will be in attendance and give their pennies for the grounds. A building has been set apart for the children and this part of the programme is proceeding under the direction of the Children's Welfare club at Groton, and bids fair to be of unusual interest and attractiveness.

be knocked down with impunity by whoever so wills."
Action by Legislature Needed.
"Well, hardly that. You must remember our orders apply only to corporations and only affect the mass of citizens directly. In this particular instance the Connecticut company was directly concerned. Such an order as the commission passed needs legislation by the state lawmakers to make the order law. It is to the legislature that the trolleyman must look if they wish the cleared running board rule to become a law enforceable by the police."

It is now understood that your activity in the running board matter is ended and that it is now between the trolleyman and the legislature that the matter of making an effective running board order rests," the commissioner was finally asked.

"Yes, both the commission and the Connecticut company have done all that the law allows them to do in connection with the running board matter. The commission does not possess legislative powers and so our running board order is considered non-enforceable by the courts. That is the whole case in a nutshell."

Not Even Stage Money.
John W. Waller is the guest of his father, ex-Gov. Thomas M. Waller, at the Waller cottage, Ocean Beach. Mr. Waller has been appearing in stock in Boston, New York, with other actors and employees of the company. Mr. Waller said recently for salary due them. None of the mean realized any money from his suit, as the company had no funds.

Picnic at Kittermaug.
The Sunday school of the Federal street Methodist Episcopal church, the Kittermaug, held its annual outing at Kittermaug Friday. The picnicers left at 9 o'clock on the power boat She-tucket and sailed up to Norwich. On the boat return they got off at Kittermaug. About 150 enjoyed the outing. Dinner was served at about 1 o'clock and consisted of chowder and other appetizing viands.

Big Catch of Crabs.
N. W. Wheeler and J. W. Bulger of the Otford road were fishers at the drawbridge on Friday afternoon and took a big catch of crabs. They made a record catch, as they counted up 250 from their nets as a result of the day's sport.

Unclaimed Letters.
The list of unclaimed letters at the Norwich Postoffice for the week ending July 27, 1912, follows: William A. Adams, Leta N. Adams, B. A. Arnold, Mrs. M. F. Dwyer, Miss Vere Gilman, Gottlob Haisch, Mary Himes, Mrs. Jassen, Philip A. Lathrop.

TAFTVILLE

An open-air meeting will be held in Taftville Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The speaker of the afternoon will be the Rev. William T. Thayer of Torrington, Conn. There will be vocal and instrumental music. Free initial and four applications for membership were received. At the close of the initiation cigars and refreshments were passed, and a social hour enjoyed. Singing by the quartette was much appreciated, but the hit of the evening was a song entitled, When Casey Rode the Goat.

Court Wequonnet Meeting.
At the regular meeting of Court Wequonnet, No. 88, F. of A., held Thursday evening three candidates were initiated and four applications for membership were received. At the close of the initiation cigars and refreshments were passed, and a social hour enjoyed. Singing by the quartette was much appreciated, but the hit of the evening was a song entitled, When Casey Rode the Goat.

The funeral of Theodore H. Larose, the 11 months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Euclidean Larose of 21 A-1 North street was held Friday afternoon. Company Men Obeyed Commission.
In speaking of the running board order, Engineer Elwell said: "I never considered for a moment that the police would use the order to prohibit the trolley company's commission. Neither, so far as I know, did any of the other commissioners. Our order directly affected the foundations. The trolley company was intended only to prohibit the trolley company to reach the people. At the hearing held on the matter in Hartford a month or so ago the whole sum and substance of the order was made upon the company to clear the running boards was this: We decided that the running board was not intended for carrying passengers any more than the fender of the trolleys or their bumpers. Accordingly we decided to order the company to pass a rule forbidding riding on the running boards, as they have already prohibited. The company obeyed our orders. They put the running board prohibitory clause in their rule books and posted the same in their trolleys. They have done all that was required of them."

About the $1000 Penalty.
"Is it not true," Mr. Elwell was asked, "that a $1000 penalty is attached to any corporation permitting the violation of a public utilities commission order?"
"Yes, that is true; but a penalty is not called for in the case of the Connecticut company, as they have obeyed our order to the word. They order passengers off the running boards and if they can't be kept off, something to be done. It is up to legislation to provide such prohibitory laws. The utilities commission has no authority to prohibit. They can simply pass orders, which the legislature must approve before they can effectively put into force with any legal force. Any law that is not simply laws of straw, made by some-
